Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, James C. (Casey) Andersen was first employed by the State of South Dakota on August 16, 1950, as a Sanitary Engineer of the Department of Health, Aberdeen Office; and,

WHEREAS, Mr. Andersen and his family transferred to Sioux Falls when the Department of Health, Division of Sanitary Engineering became part of the Department of Environmental Protection, and Casey became the head of the Sioux Falls regional office in July of 1973; and,

WHEREAS, Casey was employed in the aforementioned position when the Department of Environmental Protection became part of the Department of Water and Natural Resources in June of 1979, and continued to work for the Department until his retirement; and,

WHEREAS, Casey retires with 36 years, 10 months, and 26 days of service to the citizens of the State of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, This longevity of service makes Casey Andersen the employee with the most years of service to the State of South Dakota to ever retire from the Department of Water and Natural Resources; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper that the citizens of South Dakota thank Casey for his many years of dedicated and faithful service to this state:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 10, 1987, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-third Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

LOIS HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
